Foreword

THE apology with which amateur cataloguers usually preface their work, is particularly necessary in this case. The writer had hoped to secure the services of Mr. Frederick W. Gookin, the leading authority on Japanese prints, whose scholarly work is well known. Unfortunately, Mr. Gookin's time is engaged so far ahead that it was impossible for him to undertake the task and, although he kindly volunteered to assist as far as his time permitted, giving much good advice and solving some knotty points, the distance made this difficult.

In describing their offerings, owners are generally over optimistic. The writer has tried to avoid this and give the condition of the prints conservatively. None have been included which, in quality, are not worthy of any first-class collection. Those described as fair are in many catalogs designated as fine or superb.

Believing that, as works of art, they speak for themselves, no elaborate descriptions or encomiums have been attempted but, as far as the limits of the catalog permit, the prints themselves have been shown in small reproductions. Many of the illustrations have been selected at random and give a fair idea of the whole. An attempt has been made to show the margins so the reader can see the size for himself; but, in some cases, are actually larger than they appear to be. Plates I and II are line cuts and do not show the size of the paper. Prints not illustrated, unless noted, are full size. No prints are framed or pasted to the mounts, so their condition can easily be examined.

Sizes vary so much that, unless very small fractions of an inch are employed, they give no accurate information. So, in most cases, the Japanese sizes are employed. Yokoban, about 10 x 15 inches. Tateban, about 15 x 10 inches. Chuban, about half the above sizes. Aiban, about 9 x 13 inches. Hosoe, about 12 x 6 inches. Hashira-e, about 28 x 5 inches. Kakemono-e, about 28 x 10 inches. In panels (Tajaku-e), odd sizes and where the dimensions differ materially from the standard sizes, these are given in inches. The sizes are always those of the paper. Where the print has margins, as in most landscapes, the printed surface is, of course, smaller.

At the end, will be found an index. The exact signature of the artist, the publisher and the Japanese title are, in most cases, written on a detachable slip under the mount. Prints not signed are so noted in the catalog.

These prints were bought during the owner's various visits to and residence in Japan commencing in 1908. They have been passed upon by the leading Japanese authorities and are guaranteed genuine.

CARL SCHRAUBSTADTER.

Conditions of Sale

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale, shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale, shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Buying or bidding by the Association for responsible parties on orders transmitted to it by mail, telegraph or telephone, will be faithfully attended to without charge or commission. Any purchase so made will be subject to the above Conditions of Sale, which cannot in any manner be modified. The Association, however, in the event of making a purchase of a lot consisting of one or more prints for a purchaser who has not, through himself or his agent, been present at the exhibition or sale, will permit such lot to be returned within ten days from the date of sale, and the purchase money will be returned, if the lot in any material manner differs from its catalogue description.

Orders for execution by the Association should be written and given with such plainness as to leave no room for misunderstanding. Not only should the lot number be given, but also the title, and bids should be stated to be so much for the lot, and when the lot consists of one or more volumes of books or objects of art, the bid per volume or piece should also be stated. If the one transmitting the order is unknown to the Association, a deposit should be sent or reference submitted. Shipping directions should also be given.

Priced copies of the catalogue of any sale, or any session thereof, will be furnished by the Association at a reasonable charge.

Tokaido Harimaze

Harimaze are small pictures of different shapes. They are usually printed four or five on a sheet, and were intended to be cut apart and used for ornamenting small screens, etc. In this set, each picture represents, often remotely, one of the fifty-five stations of the Tokaido. They are preserved on the full sheets but, although many of them are exquisite little compositions, their juxtaposition is not always happy. Published by Senichi.

Diptich. Fine impression, in fine condition.

150.00 520 Kaomise

The annual performance in Tokyo of the star actors, on which occasions the new actors are also introduced. Probably Kobiki theatre. The only six sheet composition of the kind. The upper part represents the interior of the theatre. Both actors and audience naturally reproduced. Many of the spectators are craning their necks so that their heads appear in positions seldom seen in Japanese art. The European perspective is also followed. A part of the roof at the bottom combines it with the lower triptich which represents the outside of the theatre, with the usual variegated street crowd. In this, there is no European perspective and the color scheme is entirely different, yet the two pictures are harmonised perfectly by the slate gray roof in the centre.

Double triptich. Good impression, in good condition.

10.50 551 Kinryusan Temple

This view of the famous temple and its surroundings at Asakusaku in Edo is in many ways remarkable. It is not only the sole big print of Hokkei, but one of the largest color prints ever made. To one familiar with Japanese block printing it is a marvel that the register is so good. Furthermore, it was printed on a single sheet of paper, and as printing paper was never made so large, a sheet of thin paper used for another purpose was utilized. To bring it to a printable thickness, another layer of paper was originally pasted to the back. This was put together of many small sheets and where these overlapped the additional pressure of the baren made the color a trifle heavier. This backing sheet had to be removed as the folding and refolding had worn the print almost through in some places. Although topographical almost to the point of a map, the picture is a charming one and the lack of Occidental perspective in the almost countless well drawn houses is not noticeable. 17 by 25 inches. Fine impression, somewhat rubbed where it has been folded, otherwise in good condition.

BUDDHIST SCHOOL

700 Jusanbutsu

Twelve Buddhas, each with a halo around his head, are arranged in a harmonious group with Fudo who stands in the lower right hand corner. The harmonious soft colors, red, yellow, blue and brown, seem to have been applied by stencil. As usual with these very early prints, the paper is two unequally sized sheets pasted together before printing. Both printing and engraving are rather crude.

Like all of Moronobu's prints this is unsigned. There are quite a number of holes and Patches but, fortunately, they are in the blank spaces and do not interfere with the design.

788 Utamaro's Brocade Portrait

Against a yellow background, a beautiful girl is sitting holding her richly figured kimono. The face is outlined in pink. There are no other outlines but the folds of her garment are reproduced in gaufrage. This is one of the artist's most celebrated works. Kurth in his book on Utamaro, gives a full page illustration and devotes three pages of descriptive matter to it. This impression is probably a preliminary proof and unique, inasmuch as the large scroll which mars other copies has been omitted. There is no writing except the artist's signature. Tateban. Perfect impression, in beautiful condition.
